

DESCRIPTION

The stool from the Terra collection is an excellent complement to the Terra mini table but can also serve as an independent garden furniture piece. Ideal for various outdoor activities, the stool is made of natural, impregnated wood, ensuring durability and weather resistance. It is comfortable and stable, allowing children to use it safely during play or rest. You can purchase a matching table to create a functional set for outdoor play and learning. Construction: pine wood boards with a thickness of 2.0 and 2.5 cm, vacuum impregnated.
