

DESCRIPTION

The popular game 'Tic-Tac-Toe' in an XXL garden version. This modern take on the classic game provides excellent outdoor fun, encouraging children to be physically active. It allows many children to play simultaneously, fostering social skills through healthy competition and cooperation. While playing, children learn strategy, anticipating the opponent's moves, and logical thinking. The game elements are made from durable HDPE polyethylene board, resistant to weather conditions, UV radiation, and mechanical damage. The game field, made from thick rope, is both durable and safe for children. The large size of the game encourages children to move—running and moving across the entire playing field, which is a great way t...
