

DESCRIPTION

The Retro Set 204 is an impressive playground structure that combines elements of classic design with modern solutions, offering many opportunities for play and activity. The centerpiece of the set is a high lookout tower with a roof, providing an excellent place for observation. The set is equipped with two climbing walls that develop children's motor skills and coordination. Varied obstacles and ladders present additional challenges, encouraging physical activity and creative play. The long slide, made from recycled HDPE, not only provides safe play but also promotes an eco-friendly approach to playground equipment production. The natural wood used in the construction elements blends perfectly with the surro...
